Italian Traffic Manager Trainee

Created in Paris in 2008, Vertigo Media SL is a well known name in the email marketing business. Focusing on publishing advertisements and monetizing databases, we serve an extensive range of advertisers and database owners.

From our headquarters in sunny Barcelona we are active in 14 countries worldwide where we have a combined database of over 25 million consumers who have opted-in to receive our daily newsletters. Our team consists out of roughly 30 emailing experts from all nationalities, each native speakers working with clients and partners from their home country.

Besides our affiliate and traffic team, we have our own in-house deliverability team as well as graphic designers who are committed to ensure the correct delivery of our messages.

As a fast growing company and with a clear vision of where the future is leading us, we are now recruiting an Italian Traffic Manager Trainee. The qualities we seek and values in our team members include: high expectations toward oneself and each other, proactivity: initiatives are welcome, result-orientation and common sense.

Responsibilities:

- Ensure the correct and timely delivery of campaign materials (HTML templates and tracking links) to the technical team, checking the correct visualization of the final template
- Validate the daily send-outs with our clients, after which scheduling these send-outs on the correct day, time and target group
- Maintaining a good relationship with our clients and partners, communicating daily about the planning, sending and approval of their campaigns
- Monitor and update our daily statistics, tracking the performance and revenues

We offer:

- 6 month full time internship (35hs per week) 9.30h – 18.00h
- Internship remunerated 600net/month
- Place of work: Barcelona
- Starting date: Asap

Vertigo Media SL offers real career opportunities, competitive wages, social benefits and the opportunity to learn and develop new skills. We expect from our employees a sense of responsibility, outstanding commitment as well as customer-oriented conduct and teamwork. In return, you will have the opportunity to work in an international environment, worldwide projects and extend your horizons.

Requirements:

- Italian native speaker
- High level of English or Spanish
- Analytical mind, good with calculations and statistic
- Detail oriented person
- Good communication skills
- Ability to work under pressure
- Responsible and committed
- Proactive and very organized
- Good level of Windows Office and Microsoft Outlook